Tribute to Jim Hall

Ray announced that Jim Hall had resigned from the committee. He further said that Jim “has been a key member of the committee for eleven years, so we could not let him go without taking a moment to reflect upon his substantial contribution to the society.

Jim joined the committee in 2011, taking on the roles of Distribution Organiser, Open Gardeners Organiser and Assistant Show Secretary. He kept those roles, even when he took on extra responsibilities as Secretary for 2015 and 2016 and as Vice Chairman since 2017. However, he did not let those roles restrict his involvement. He also organised several outings - such as the coach trips to Greenwich, Tate Britain and the National Gallery - as well as quietly getting on with background tasks, such as maintaining our digital archive and repairing poster boards.

Jim is creative, practical, versatile and helpful, attributes that have made him a valued member of the committee and a pleasure to work with. We thanked him for his long service and presented him with an appropriate gift.”

Ray went on to say that there was now a vacancy on the committee and there were a number of tasks, which needed to be reallocated. Thanks to the supportive nature of the committee and good teamwork, these had been taken on by committee members for the Spring Show. However, THACS’ committee was actively seeking new members and asked those present to spread the word to anyone who were interested in horticultural and/or arts and crafts activities.

6. Preview of 2022 events

Ray gave a summary of the events that THACS were planning for the current year, which are as follows:

Ray further said that there may be an Art Workshop and/or a Creative Writing Workshop towards the end of 2022.

7. Any Other Business

8. Date and time of 2023 AGM
