LITTER BINS

Please be sensible as to what you put in the litter bins otherwise they overflow and cause a health hazard:

- Do not stuff large bags of rubbish in them as it leaves no room for genuine litter including dog poo bags.
- Do not put waste food in the bins - foxes will dig it out and spread litter all over the ground.
- Do not put household rubbish in litter bins.
- If you are having a picnic, please take your rubbish home with you.

NB: If your rubbish is going to fill the bin, then you should be taking it away with you.

SCARING CROWS 2024

[in the Straw-poll, every vote counted]

June was the month of the Tewin Scare-Crow,

Not so scary - but Oh! What a show

- POSTMAN PAT was the winner overall

And he'd 'posted' lots of jokes on his wall

-Second place - in the scorecard race went to the old chap from UP!

for most of the day – sat surrounded by hay

'til balloons flew him UP with his pup.

-Then not far behind was the gigantic ear

With which DUMBO the elephant could fly

-And on Lower Green stood BAMBI the deer

On his tail sporting a pink butterfly

-You could see MINNIE MOUSE at the side of a house scaring cats instead of the crows

-While SPIDERMAN had already began

Spinning straw from his head to his toes

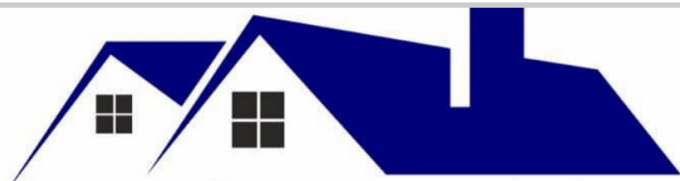

-Then FLINTSTONE FRED – had converted a bed to a straw car without any brake

-And a couple down Hertford Road got wed

With straw-hats, straw-guests and strawberry cake!

Well done to you all who made it such a great weekend !

On The Farm

It seems our weather is stuck in a wet weather mode and yet the seasons seem to slip by ever faster.

Hearing a few years ago that the Basic Payment Scheme for farmers was reducing did not bother me. It made me want to build a more resilient business myself, and to be free to farm as I want to and not be controlled by Government Policies or payments. As asked in a double page in a daily paper a couple of weeks ago - 'What do we want from our farms, FOOD or FLOWERS?'. I am now being paid to grow several acres of environmental mixtures of special grasses, which includes flowers and bird food, and this week we sowed 5 acres of Sunflowers.

All our wheat crops have had their fungicide programs. The cold, dull, wet weather encourages diseases, especially at its flowering stage of growth. All in all the crops look great, but we are not at Harvest time yet. I would like some warmer weather & sunshine. Our peas have continued through their growth stages. Today, the 14th of June, they have their flower buds starting to show, which will become their pea-pods in a week or two.

Work on our new barn is slowly taking place. Our main problem is the electricity supply and we are working with UK power networks to install a new transformer to boost supply for us and for the Village in the future. We hope the barn will be ready by early August. The last of the wheat has left our main grain store and we will now give it the annual clean down and get it ready for the coming Harvest.

Ivor Williams.

When to Harvest Vegetables

Harvest in the early morning after the dew dries. This is when vegetables are at their juiciest and most flavourful. Produce will keep longer and not become limp from heat; this especially refers to leafy greens like lettuce and chard and herbs such as parsley and basil. It also applies to crisp fruiting vegetables like peas and anything in the cabbage family, broccoli, and radishes.

Not all fruits and vegetables ripen the same way. Pears are picked when they are still hard! Watermelons, squash, and cucumbers must be fully developed before being picked. Tomatoes, apples, and peaches can ripen on or off the vine.

Be gentle when you pick. Never yank fruit or vegetables. Stems and branches are easily broken, inviting disease. Use two hands to pick; hold the stem in one hand and pick with the other. If the crop is ripe but doesn't easily pull by hand (such as aubergine), use scissors, pruners, or a knife.

When is National Cheesecake Day?

National Cheesecake Day is held each year on 30th July.

People around the world use this day as an excuse to indulge in a slice (or two) of their favourite cheesecake flavour, whether it's a classic New York-style, a fruity creation, or something more decadent.

The History of Cheesecake

National Cheesecake Day is a relatively young holiday, established in 1985. However, cheesecake itself has a much longer history, dating back to ancient Greece! These early cheesecakes, called “plakous” (meaning “flat mass”), were quite different from their modern counterparts. They were made with crumbled cheese mixed with flour and honey and then baked on a griddle. There's even evidence that athletes in the first Olympic Games enjoyed these cheesecakes for energy!

Over the centuries, cheesecake has evolved and travelled the world, taking on new flavours and techniques in different cultures. From the ricotta-based cheesecakes of Italy to the quark cheesecakes of Germany, this dessert became a global phenomenon.

The invention of cream cheese in the late 19th century revolutionized cheesecake. This new ingredient allowed for the smooth, creamy texture we associate with modern cheesecakes. Cheesecake continued to evolve in the 20th century, with bakers experimenting with new flavours and techniques.

Hidden Hertford

As we walk around the town there are some things that escape our notice – things that are above or below our eyeline, or little details that pass unnoticed. Things that are hidden in plain sight.

This article looks at some of the less obvious features and objects to be found above our heads and beneath our feet which can easily be overlooked.

Street Lighting

In 1825 there were at least 40 gas lamps in the town's streets plus a watchman. The lamps were powered by a gas works in Mead Lane that produced coal gas.

One such gas lamp can be found in Ware Road on the boundary wall of Christ's Hospital (Bluecoats) close to the junction with Mill Road.

Before the advent of street lighting people could hire link-boys to carry a flaming torch or link to illuminate the way. At the end of the journey these torches could be extinguished in snuffers installed in the street. Such a pair of snuffers can be found on the side of the Old Verger's House in St Andrews Street.

This and other fascinating information can be found on the About Hertford website Hidden In Plain Sight | About Hertford

BEAM Is Almost Ready To Open

The refurbishment of the Hertford Theatre site is almost complete and it has a new name - BEAM.

BEAM is a creative arts and culture venue situated in the heart of Hertford town centre. Located on the site of the previous Hertford Theatre, BEAM continues the legacy of bringing high quality entertainment and arts to the town. Offering first-release films, a new, flexible studio theatre, community facilities, including a Changing Place and a variety of public spaces to work, socialise or just relax in.

We're more than just a theatre, and a name change was necessary to capture all that we have to offer.

We worked with our branding consultants, Hemingway Design and local creatives, community organisations and key stakeholders to find a new name for a building that embodies our values.

BEAM is a ray of light seen from the projector in a darkened cinema.

BEAM is a spotlight that picks out a performer on a stage.

BEAM is a smile on your face.

BEAM shines a light on Hertford, putting it on the regional and national cultural map.

Team Vicar's Letter

It has been said many a time that the church should stay out of politics. It is a statement easily made but when I hear it, I always think it worth asking who is making that statement, and what might be their own agenda? There is also another question of who do they mean by 'the church'? In our country legislation gives bishops a particular duty to scrutinize and comment on the workings of parliament within their role in the House of Lords. It's part of their job, so we can't expect them to be silent. But really 'the church' is not just the bishops, but rather every ordinary person who identifies as Christian – who along with other citizens of different faiths and none, have an important role as they enter the public debate on the values we wish our society to be shaped by.

The word 'politics' has its roots in the Latin word for 'citizen' or 'people' and Christianity has at its heart God's care and concern for all people whom he created and the common life we share. The bible from its earliest Scriptures to the teachings of Jesus show God's desire for justice and insistence that the least in our communities should be given a special concern. Desmond Tutu once said 'When people tell me that the Bible has nothing to do with politics, I ask them "Which Bible are you talking about?"'

Of course, none of this gives a straightforward answer as to where a Christian might in good conscience place their vote. This will be an issue of personal discernment. Our duty as citizens though is to examine the values found in manifestos, look not just to our own self interests but to the broader needs of our world and society and to play our part in shaping the future of this country for the wellbeing of all. It would also be good, in the run up to polling day, to heed the prayer of our Archbishops that 'this will be a time marked by respect for one another, for good grace and a commitment to truth and integrity.'

Those are values that we would do well to live by.

Susannah

St Peter's News

A church at the heart of the village, with space for all

Here we are, more than halfway through the year and the weather is still so changeable. I put all my winter woollies away and then found that even when it was sunny, there was a chilly wind and I needed to cover up. We were very fortunate to enjoy a week on the Isle of Wight in May, between the two Bank Holidays, when it was quite warm most of the time.

Last month I concentrated on telling you where we are with our project to provide new facilities at the church. This meant I had little space to sing the praises of all those who came to help with the Spring Cleaning on 10 and 11 May. Over thirty people came to lend a hand, some of them twice(!), and they enjoyed a very convivial team effort which has left the church looking wonderful. After a number of years of dirty panes, the clean windows mean the church is lighter inside, even without the lights on, and the smell of the bees wax polish made some of us quite dizzy! So many, many thanks to all who came to help.

At the Annual Church Meeting at the end of May we elected Brian Evers to the PCC and said thank you to Gerry Murphy and Mick Simmons who are standing down. Other members of the PCC are: our vicar – Susannah Underwood, David Little, Myra Walker, Elaine Fowler, Pauline Brown, Spike Nicholson, Nick Whiting and Graham Spring. Di Bradley remains our Treasurer and Aled Owen is the PCC Secretary. I was re-elected as Churchwarden.

By the time you read this, we should have had a very busy June in the village what with the Scarecrow weekend, the Arts and Crafts day and then Open Gardens, which this year is being run by the church. I am hopeful the weather will be kind to us for all these events. Much cake will have been eaten! Thank you to all those kind garden owners who allowed us to see their beautiful gardens. And to all who helped on the garden open days. Some people said the end of June was past the best time for their gardens. But I was pleased to note that at Chelsea this year, there was a celebration of trees and greenery generally, with no great emphasis on colour in the borders. In any case, all gardens are in a state of a work in progress and never being quite perfect. And who cares? It is just nice to wander round a lovely garden and enjoy some tea and cake and a chat with friends and neighbours.

At the beginning of June some of us were delighted to attend Evensong at Jesus College Cambridge with which St Peter's has an ancient link.

In July we begin Summer Evensongs across the Welwyn Team of churches, from 21st July at Woolmer Green. The theme this year is a celebration of the natural world in the bible starting with Mountains. All services start at 6.30pm and are an opportunity for you to visit some really lovely local churches. Other dates for your diaries are as follows:

28th July - Datchworth - Cities

4th August - Codicote - Rivers

11th August - Tewin - Gardens

18th August - Ayot St Peter - Wilderness

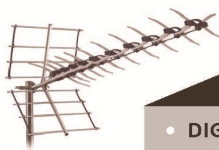

25th August – Welwyn - Sky On this Sunday the Joint Service on Burnham Green with All Saints Datchworth will take place at 10am.

Our bellringers have decided it is time to celebrate some of their special efforts in recent years. We have a number of Peal Boards on the walls of the Clock tower going back over 100 years which are well worth looking at. We now want to include a new one for when the bellringers rang special peals on the occasion of the death of Queen Elizabeth II and the coronation of King Charles III. The PCC is pleased to support this request and we shall be applying to the diocese for permission to add these to the church walls.

If you have lost loved ones recently, or are in poor health or spirits, please remember the Welwyn team of clergy are there to give support. Please contact:

Maya's programme will include Beethoven's dramatic 'Tempest' Sonata, the Second Book of 'Images' by Debussy, and Rachmaninov's Second Sonata.

The concert is on Saturday 6 July at 12 noon and will last for one hour. Entry is free and all are very welcome.

Maya Irgalina hails originally from Minsk in Belarus. She is very proud of her Tatar heritage but has made her home in London and gained British nationality earlier this year.

Maya holds the International Artist Diploma in Solo Performance, the Gold Medal prize from the Royal Northern College of Music and a master's degree in Music from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama.

She made her Wigmore Hall debut under the auspices of the Worshipful Company of Musicians as one of their prizewinners.

As a soloist, she has played with the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, Manchester Camerata, and the Belarusian Opera House Orchestra, among others.

Her playing has been broadcast by the Australian Broadcasting Corporation, BBC Radio 3 and Belarusian Radio. And Maya was featured in Semyon Bychkov's 'Beloved Friend' project about Tchaikovsky, performing with the BBC Symphony Orchestra.

There will be no recital in August, and the 2024/5 season of 'Second Saturday Recitals' will open on 14 September with the return of the Amaia String Quartet, who gave a memorable performance in St Mary's in January for an audience of 120 enthralled listeners.

Friends of Danesbury and QVM

Summer should be well and truly with us now and in Welwyn we have recently had all the fun and excitement of the Festival Week. Along with many other charitable organisations, the Friends of Danesbury have had their usual stalls both in the Street Market and on Singlers Marsh for the Fun Day – two very different events which both say so much about what makes Welwyn such a delightful village to live in.

We had some lovely things donated for our stalls, new household items, bric-a-brac and gifts as well as some gorgeous teddies and other toys. I had the utmost difficulty stopping myself from buying them! We are most grateful to everyone who supported us on those two days, both by donating and visiting our stalls. A big thank you also to our volunteers who put in so many hours hard work both behind the scenes in getting everything ready and in selling on the day.

More generally I am happy to report that our charity shop in the High Street continues to do well – it is so kind of everyone to donate their pre-loved clothes and other items to us. The patients in Danesbury and the Queen Victoria Memorial Hospital really appreciate the treats and other items which we are able to provide for them with the money we raise. The Friends also sell some of the more special donated items on Ebay at: <https://www.charity.ebay.co.uk/charity/i/FRIENDS-OF-DANESBURY-AND-QUEEN-VICTORIA-MEMORIAL-HOSPITAL/185273> so do take a look.

The gardens in the beautiful hospital grounds are now flourishing – the setting looking over the hills to Ayot St Peter is so special and the flowers and other plants that the Friends have been able to supply really add to the enjoyment of both patients and staff.

Finally thank you to all of you who voted for the Friends Charity shop in the recent Oscars – it means so much to us.

I hope you all enjoy a very happy summer break wherever you are, and thank you for all your support.

Tewin Stores and Cafe

What a change a month can make; no, not the weather, but in your local community shop. Following our recent visit to the Farm Shop & Deli show we have lots of lovely new products for you to buy. As promised, we have a new supplier of gluten free quiches, pies, and Scotch eggs, as well as some sandwich meats - and some sweet items. Please pop in and try them; and we hope there will be more new items to follow.

We now have a date for our Summer Supper. It is to be on Thursday July 25th.

Places will have to be booked and paid for in advance; so pop into the shop and book because numbers are limited. Before that we have the usual monthly Saturday lunch on the 20th July, which is a Ploughman's. The cost is again £6.00; for other details please see the notice in the shop.

Below are the winners of our monthly 100 Club draw; but unfortunately it doesn't actually have 100 members in it.

It is designed as a fund-raising exercise where 45% of each month's income is paid out as prize money and the remaining 55% goes towards equipment, and the upkeep of the shop.

If you are not already a member, do pick up an application form from the Shop. It only costs £2 per month (£24 pa).

Thank you; and Good Luck!

The 100 Club winners in June were:

1 st Prize: Judy Puddefoot	£42.50
2 nd Prize: Susan Lewis	£21.25
3 rd Prize: Julia Tizard	£12.75

Scarecrow Weekend and Village Picnic

Well, the Scarecrows have now left the Village for another year but, a big thank you to everyone who displayed a Scarecrow and who joined in the fun and I can tell you that the winning Scarecrow was “Postman Pat”, in second place was “Up, Up and Away” and “Dumbo” came in third. A thank you also to the brave folk who joined us on the Village Green on Sunday for the picnic. It didn’t rain but it wasn’t the glorious June day we had all hoped for to entice you to sit and relax. Nevertheless, it was a good turn out and I hope everyone enjoyed themselves. The races proved as popular with the adults as they were with the children!

Tewin Classic Car & Craft Show - Sunday 18th August

Classic entries opened in April with a very positive response. I’m sure that on 18th August, Upper Green will be filled with amazing cars on display and will make a wonderful spectacle.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Can you spare an hour and help us at the show? The car show is a great event to be a part of but some of our regular volunteers aren’t available this year, which means that more than ever, we really need to hear from you!

The car show is the biggest community event in Tewin and it is a great day for the village. Helping on the day is really good fun and there are so many ways you can take part. You probably know that we sell lots of cakes, so can you make a cake for us? Or help us to set up during the morning or clear away at the end of the show? Or can you do a stint in the car park? Can you help in the Pavilion, or in the Information Tent or the Tea Tent?

As you can see, there are lots of ways to help and we will be delighted to hear from you. Please email us, our e-mail addresses are:

friendsoftewin@gmail.com or tewincarshow@hotmail.co.uk.
