

Tewin Magazine

Editorial Note

Sadly this is my last issue as Editor. It's been an interesting and memorable experience and I hope my successor will have an enjoyable and longer tenure.

As usual, there's a lot of festive fun in Tewin throughout December and we can look forward to a real mixture of events, with our church services at the heart of the celebrations.

I may be going but the magazine still needs your contributions. The email address is tewinmagazine@gmail.com and the deadline is the 15th of each month but the earlier the better.

Termination of Prescription Service at Tewin Stores

It is no longer possible to pick up prescriptions from Tewin Stores. Bridge Cottage Surgery was advised by the Herts Pharmacy & Medicines Team that the prescriptions service from the shop must stop as the collection of medicines from an unregulated site from unregulated personnel is not acceptable practice nor in accordance with relevant regulations and legislation. They are looking for other solutions.

Repeat prescriptions can be obtained by ringing Bridge Cottage Surgery who will outline the various options available. Home delivery will be agreed on a case by case basis and patients must get agreement from Bridge Cottage Surgery.

We are very grateful to Cllr D. Lloyd for providing this service in Tewin over the last eight years.

Planning Applications

To see planning applications submitted to East Herts Council, use this special short URL - tinyurl.com/ehcplanning, wait for it to respond, then enter 3/13/* in the Planning Reference, select TEWIN for the Parish, and then search.

Superfast Broadband

The Parish Council is supporting Herts County Council's campaign to bring superfast broadband to the northern part of Tewin.

If you would like to support this campaign please go online to www.superfastforherts.org and register your support for free or call 0300 123 4040. This registration helps identify the level of potential demand for improved broadband in your area, therefore proving it is a commercially viable project for suppliers to invest in increasing the broadband speed. There is no obligation to subscribe to the service if it becomes available.

It is probably also beneficial to register an interest at www.bt.com/btinfinity - you don't have to be a BT customer to do this but BT is responsible for putting in the appropriate cabling. Enter your phone number to check to see if Infinity is available, and if it reports that it is not currently available to you, there is an option to register an interest.

East Herts Council Strategic Land Availability Assessment ("SLAA") Round 3 Interim

The SLAA is an early stage in the development of the next District Plan. To see the list of sites on the SLAA please use this special short URL - tinyurl.com/ehcslaa which will take you to the call for sites page on the East Herts Council website which then has references to the SLAA, and various documents listing the sites by parish and some maps.

AWAY IN A MANGER

Written by Mary Levick-Atkins. Published by permission of the Cinnamon Trust.

The little black cat knew her time had come,
But she was a stray and had no home.
The leaf-lined hollow where she lay was chill,
The wind-blown bracken thin, and offering little shelter,
Boding ill for her coming litter.

She sensed that near was warmth and
Shelter from the winter's bitter blast,
And watched the ladies with their secateurs
Trim and cut the holly in the Church's porch
And twine the Ivy, and arrange the pure whiteness of
The flowers until, at last they left.

The open door invited, and she crept within
With footfall soft and deft.

She sniffed the strange sweet harshness of evergreen,
The incense of Chrysanthemum, a whiff of fresh warm straw
And what was more,
Quite near her quivering whiskers,
She leaped into the welcoming safety of the manger
And pushed the Christ-child just a little further on,
Making room for her, the Stranger.

Christ's Mass dawned,
And choir and congregation sang, and Heaven with jubilation rang,
And in the crib's strawed comfort curled the little stray,
Amber eyes a-blink with love and ecstasy
On this, HER infant son's birth day.

The children crowded round as children will;
But in that Holy place she had no fear,
And joined her rapturous purring song with theirs,
Just loud enough for God to hear.

Sponsored Bike and Hike Ride – 14th September 2013

Thanks to all those riders and helpers who took part in the annual sponsored bike ride in aid of the Beds and Herts Historic Churches Trust. Despite the wet weather, a number of people from St Peter's cycled along various routes between local churches and in doing so raised £463 plus Gift Aid, half of which will go to the Trust and half to St Peter's for the upkeep of the building. Thanks go also to those who manned the check-in desk and provided cakes and refreshments for visiting cyclists. The sponsorship by so many is much appreciated.

Team Vicar's Letter

Fallen trees were a common sight last month, when the storm on St. Jude's day, took a good number down. There is a legend about another tree being blown down by a mighty wind. It is the story of St. Boniface, an 8th century English Bishop, who was sent to Germany as a missionary.

The legend tells us that one night he came across a group of people praying to Thor, the Nordic god of thunder and war. They were gathered under an oak tree and seeing within its dead branches Thor's curse upon them, were preparing to feed the oak tree by sacrificing the blood of a child. Boniface intervened, striking at the tree with an axe. A great wind toppled the oak and there, between its roots, stood a small green fir tree.

"From this night", said Boniface "that little tree shall be your holy emblem. It is the wood of peace, for your homes are built of it. It is the sign of eternal life, for its leaves are green. It points to heaven, and so shall be called the tree of the Christ Child" and he proceeded to tell them about the birth of Christ.

This year Datchworth Church is having its very first Christmas tree festival. The church will become a little forest, as trees decorated by local children and organisations will spring up between pew and aisle. St. Nicholas (aka Santa Claus) will move into the vestry and crafts, games, mulled wine and warming food will encourage a festive glow.

Let us in these winter months, as we see these trees spring up in schools, shops, our village green and our homes, look to where they point us – to the ever-green love of God, given in the gift of his Son Jesus Christ. I pray that you will know his peace.

Wishing you a holy and blessed Christmas,

Susannah

St Peter's News

Just as Summertime ended we were hit by storms on the night of 27th October. A cherry tree was torn down just outside the gate on the church drive, completely blocking access. We are grateful for the speedy attention of Stuart Kirkham and help from the Parish Council, which meant access was restored later that morning. The dead Hawthorn at the kissing gate has been cleared away and awaits the erection of a new fence. We are very grateful to Ivor for removing the fallen boughs from the Plane tree which has now been judiciously pruned in the hope of keeping the remainder standing.

We are sorry that this will be the last edition of the Tewin Magazine that Jane Vine will be editing. Work commitments have prevented her from continuing in this important role but we are grateful for all the hard work that she has put in over recent months. So now we urgently need a new editor to take us into 2014... Any offers??

On a brighter note, we are pleased to have a new organist at St Peter's. He is Andrei Pytaleu, who is combining our role with that at Datchworth. Since Rosemary left we have been very fortunate to have Ted Sharp playing for most of our services and we hope he will continue to play for us when Andrei is not available. Thank you, Ted, for all that you have done.

Story Club at the school continues to be well supported on Fridays but numbers at Sunday School on the first Sunday of the month are disappointing. More children would be very welcome in the vestry at 9.30am. However, the Children's Activity afternoon on Nov 1st was well attended with 20 children and 20 helpers.

What a busy November! All Souls Day was celebrated on 3rd November when many of our friends and relations who had passed away were specially remembered at a choral evensong. Then, on 10th November, we remembered those who had died in the two World Wars at the annual Remembrance service round the war memorial. Afterwards, in Church, Susannah gave about 70 of us some interesting facts about how the war had affected her own family. On Monday 11th, the School's Honeybees class led a service, followed in the afternoon by a visit from Knightsfield School. Then, on 24th November we were delighted to welcome Bishop Paul of Hertford to conduct our morning service.

Looking ahead, don't forget the Christmas Tree Festival at Datchworth on 6th & 7th December, and the Carol Service on 22nd December. Details of all the Christmas services can be found in the centre pages including the ever-popular Crib service and Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve.

We wish a very happy and peaceful Christmas to all our readers.
Graham Spring

Friends of Tewin

You may have noticed my senior moment last month when I mentioned you would receive your menu for the Senior Citizens lunch before Christmas, but those of you who had been before know it arrives after the New Year, sorry.

We have begun to donate various sums of money to the following people:-
Tewin Memorial Hall for road cones and signs, Tewin Shop for treatment and re-decoration of the inside wall, Tewin Shop Volunteers in appreciation of the time they give, Tewin Orchard for apple pickers, Mothers & Toddlers group for 3 items, Tewin Under Fives for a list of 9 items. We also plan to re-coat the guard around Don Southgate's tree. We have now received other requests and will be considering them.

The "Carols around the Christmas Tree" is planned for Wednesday 18th December. Hot Mulled Wine, Hot Chocolate, mince pies and fairy cakes will be available from 6pm. Father Christmas with Mrs Christmas will arrive at 6.15pm but will only be able to stay for 20 minutes as he has other children to see. At approx. 6.35pm the raffle for "Shelter" will be drawn and then with the help of Susannah we will sing Carols with our regular band. Please come along to this really lovely family event enjoyed over the years by so many. During the evening, please keep your children near you and safe, as it is always a worry with so many children, in the dark, near a busy road. If it should be wet, look for a notice under the Well Cover on Lower Green.

The Committee of Friends of Tewin all wish you a Happy Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Friends of Danesbury & Queen Victoria Memorial Hospital

In past years our AGM has provided an ideal opportunity to announce a new project. This year is no exception. A plan is in prospect for a major refurbishment of the in-patients' rooms at Danesbury. If this gets final approval in December work will commence in the New Year and is scheduled for completion by the end of March. This will further enhance Danesbury's important role in the county's neurological service.

Provided the project proceeds the Friends have agreed to contribute additional money to install an entertainment system specifically for the benefit of the patients. This is exactly what we believe we are here to do.

By the beginning of December some of us will be all prepared for the coming festivities. Others of us less so! Some, so I understand, see Christmas Eve as being the perfect time to make their purchases. Whatever your attitude let us remind you that in our shops you will find gifts to suit all pockets and, of course, our exclusive Christmas cards. Please support us as very penny spent directly benefits our charity.

Being our last newsletter of the year may we thank you for all the support we have received from so many people in the past year, and wish you all a very happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.
